Bev Bos

Celebrating Childhood:
*Have We Tumbled Over the Edge?

Have we gone too far past remembering what childhood is about? This seminar will focus on how we must learn to recognize and celebrate the idiosyncrasies and stages of growth of children, and establish environments that respect childhood.

 Schedule for Brunch & Seminar
Teachers' Brunch

Teachers are invited to a limited seating brunch with Bev Bos before the seminar. Bev will be available to answer questions of general interest. PCPO teachers will be given priority for this event until February 25th. Other teachers can be contacted if space is available.

This year PCPO's conference has a shortened format so that we may present Bev Bos.

Bev Bos

Bev has been the Director and a Teacher at the Roseville Community Preschool in Roseville, CA for over 32 years. She is the author of three books; Don't Move the Muffin Tins, Before the Basics, and Together We're Better.

Bev lectures around the country and internationally on topics in her field of expertise - creative art, music and language, science, self-esteem; and helping children learn to socialize in a very natural way. She is sought after by Early Childhood Education groups, parents, teachers, childcare professionals, and college classes. While maintaining a very active lecture schedule, Bev continues to teach three mornings per week.

Bev has spoken several times at the National Association for the Education of Young Children conference as well as for many state AEYC affiliations. Some of her other credits include appearances on local TV and Radio in Sacramento, CA., National Public Radio, and she has been featured on the ABC News 20/20 program.

In addition to her books, Bev has produced two video tapes Starting At Square One and Come On And Sing, and ten recordings of music and storytelling with Michael Leeman and Tom Hunter. Along with Michael Leeman, she also performs concerts for families with young children. Bev is the mother of five grown children and grandmother to thirteen.

Check out Bev's website at www.turnthepage.com.

Michael Leeman

Michael has co-presented with Bev Bos to a wide variety of organizations of parents and teachers on topics of art, music, creativity, science and child development since 1984. He is a musician and illustrator of music and books for young children. Among Michael's published works is the children's picture book Morningtown Ride. Michael, who is also Bev's son-in-law, lives with his wife Carrie and daughters, Meghan and Jillian, in Roseville, Ca.
